C O U R T E S Y

Time comes, time passes by; to-day becomes yesterday, to-morrow becomes to-day and all of us move around this time-cycle. We recall the nostalgic past of sorrows and joys and look for happy to-morrow.

With the time-cycle, some events keep on performing despite various constraints and hindrances. One such event is the colour salon of The Society of Photographers, who have been successfully performing the salon for the last 27 years and are now going to perform its 28th International Colour Salon 1996.

On this eve, all the members of the Society express their sincere gratitude to all the participants and to all of them, who have, directly or indirectly, in whatever way possible, extended their kind co-operation and help to the Society in making the Salon a success.

The attitude of the global humanity is deteriorating day by day and people are becoming more and more self-centred for individual interest causing deep concern to human resource development and pollution free world concept. Nevertheless, there is still life and the fact remains that the Sun rises with its grandeur every morning, the Moon with its soft glow is seen in the blue sky, the stars twinkle, the ocean roars, the flowers bloom, the nature appears in front of our eyes with its changing beauties throughout the various seasons. Still there are many subjects for the person having a creative eye and decent mental ability to make "Stills" of the paragon of beauties and present the same before the people who loves to see the "moment of beauty" in such Salons like ours.

In our Salon of 1996, there has been 215 participants from 23 countries, who have been kind enough to send us jewels from their treasure of aesthetic creation. We were expecting more entries this year, but our expectation did not reach the desired level, which, we are afraid, might have been due to delay in receiving the entry-forms by the potential participants. Nevertheless, we shall endeavour our best to mail the entry forms more well in advance next year so that we do not miss a single interested participant. We take the pleasure of congratulating the recipients of the awards/certificates in various streams of their creations and those who could not win the award, our best wishes to them for a better luck next year.

Like every year, Sri Benu Sen and Sri T. K. Dutta had extended their valuable time and expertise in the judging session. We offer our regards to them. We would also like to record our sincere thanks to Mrs. Pratiti Das for lending her golden voice during the Slide projection narrating the subject matter of the slides being projected.

With high hope for a more colourful salon next year, we remain...
